To be a growing church, God's gift to the community

Strawberries and Dreams

Well following the success of Queen Elizabeth II's Platinum Jubilee celebrations – which I hope everyone was able to enjoy in some way - we have now moved from Her Majesty's royal court to the tennis courts of Wimbledon!

I have only ever managed to get tickets to the tournament twice. The first occasion was when I was about ten years old and went with my mum and sister and had restricted viewing from behind a steel girder on Court 1; and the second time was when I went with my husband and never saw any tennis!

That year the weather was so bad there was less than thirty minutes play, which having arrived a little late we missed! So, the only real 'taste of Wimbledon' we were able to enjoy that day was that of the strawberries and cream ☺

Now I don't know if those who are reading this are lovers of tennis or play the game themselves. But having seen top-class tennis players in action, to witness their speed, strength, accuracy, and fitness is an incredible sight. As someone who plays a bit of tennis, I can only dream of playing to such a standard; and in fact, to see such performances can actually leave me feeling very inadequate about my own game! But then I have to remember that I am not, and will never be, Serena Williams! Which is where perspective is important.

I am reminded of one of the first jokes my dad ever told me, about the man who answers the advert for 'A Handy Man'. Turning up for the interview he is asked by the client whether he can do plumbing, to which he replies 'no'; whether he can turn his hand to carpentry, to which he again replies 'no'; whether he is good in the garden and knows his fauna and flora, to which again the man replies 'no'. Lastly, he is asked if he can cook, which once again he replies 'no'. Rather exasperatingly the man interviewing him says, "you don't seem to have any of the skills which I am looking for, what exactly makes you think you are 'handy'...?" To which the man replies: "I only live round the corner!"

Life is not a game to be won to love, but a life to be lived with love. To see any one good at what they do is amazing – but we are not all born to be a Rafael Nadal, Elvis Presley, Bill Gates, Katherine Jenkins, or the Queen! But we are all special in God’s eyes. All born with our own unique gifts and callings. And what is more important is to be the best version of ourselves that we can, living with integrity and with love and care for each other.

In fact, whatever we do in life, ‘living round the corner’ and being there for our neighbour may actually be the most important thing we can be.

God Bless ... Revd. Jane x

The Vacancy - July Update

The recruitment process for a new priest is continuing to move at a very fast pace !

All the necessary paperwork has been completed and the Job Advert has appeared on the Diocesan website, see Interim Priest-in-Charge \(0.75 FTE\) for the Benefice of Chipping Ongar with Shelley, Greensted Juxta Ongar and Stanford Rivers | Chelmsford Diocese \(anglican.org\) The closing date for applications was 1st July and interviews are due to take place on 28th July.

The post will be different from Noelle’s in that it will be part-time (.75 FTE) and the person appointed will also have pastoral oversight of Bobbingworth and Moreton. He/she will not however be the lead priest in the MMU (as Noelle was). This role is now being undertaken by Rev Sam Brazier-Gibbs who is based at Blackmore.

The other thing to note is that the person appointed will be an Interim Minister for a period of three years as he/she and his/her colleagues (ordained and lay) work together to discern and shape the future of mission and ministry in our MMU (Mission & Ministry Unit).

HOME COMMUNION ... Is there anyone who, for one reason or another, cannot be in Church as they used to be? For those of you who would like it, we can offer home communions. If this is something you would like, please contact either myself, Sue on 01277 362723 or Shirley on 01277 364143, and we can arrange a convenient time to bring the sacrament to you.

Now that we are in Interregnum, if anyone feels that they would like to write an article for the Newsletter under the heading – ‘A Church Warden / Member of the Congregation Writes’, please e-mail me (susan.roger.king@ntlworld.com) to let me know – I shall watch this space with anticipation !

You can be anonymous if you wish, but nothing too controversial please!
The Editor’s decision on articles will be final !!! Please do think about this request ... and have a word with me.
